

Policing in Austerity

Minimising the damage, or a chance to rethink?

The Birmingham Council House - Tuesday 13th September 2011

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| 09.00 - 09.30 | Arrive and refreshments |
| 09:30 - 09:45 | Welcome by Dave Whatton - Chief Constable Cheshire Constabulary |
| 09:45 - 10:15 | Rt.Hon Nick Herbert |
| 10:15 - 10:45 | Staffordshire Fire & Rescue - Top of the league tables but still full of waste |
| 10:45 - 11:15 | Cheshire Constabulary - What we learn when we study demand |
| 11:15 - 11:30 | Break - Refreshments |
| 11:30 - 12:00 | Portsmouth City Council - A counter-intuitive approach to redesigning services for the public and the impact on costs |
| 12:00 - 12:30 | Table discussions and questions to the speakers - What are the implications for the police service? |
| 12.30 - 13:15 | Lunch |
| 13:15 - 13:45 | Somerset Total Place programme - How redefining labels and working in partnership delivers in health and social care |
| 13:45 - 14:15 | Cheshire Criminal Justice Partners - Criminal Justice working together for a common purpose |
| 14:15 - 14:45 | Staffordshire Police - Making information sharing useful |
| 14:45 - 15:00 | Break - Refreshments |
| 15:00 - 15:30 | West Midlands Police - Supporting discretion and the impact on community |
| 15:30 - 15:50 | Speakers panel – questions and answers |
| 15:50 - 16:00 | Close - Dave Whatton - Chief Constable Cheshire Constabulary |